

Independent learning tasks in Sociology

To make condensed notes from your booklets - this will embed your learning of the subject.
Create flashcards for the Sociologist. Include: the theory they belong to, which unit they link to and what they have said. This will differentiate between students who gain an A*/A from a C.
Complete WJEC Sociology tasks on Quizlet. Remember to find Miss Garside's folders.
To visit the library and access the Sociology Reviews which are on reference. This contains contemporary and up to date research in sociology which you can impress the examiner by using.
You should watch relevant documentaries such as Dispatches, Panorama, A Child of Our Time. These documentaries often link with the key topic areas you are studying such as Youth Subcultures, Education, Crime and Research Methods.
Reading broadsheet newspapers and Society sections in these newspapers which again will provide you with up to date key information on the topics you are studying.
Visit relevant sociological / news websites. In particular pay attention to how sociological research is impacting on Social and Government Policy.  Sites to visit include: www.statistics.gov.uk (an excellent website for the latest statistics on crime, education, family structures etc) http://www.socresonline.org.uk (the most up to date sociological research from universities). http://www.guardian.co.uk/society/social-trends (contains the latest social trends in UK society)
Use Steve Bassett Youtube tutorials to enhance your understanding of the WJEC units.
Visit Miss Garside's room and pick revision resources from her folders on the classroom wall.
Complete past papers from the WJEC Sociology GCE website. Use the mark schemes and resources in your book to aid your writing.
