The DDA introduced measures aimed at eliminating the discrimination often faced by disabled people. The main provisions of the Act give protection to disabled people in the areas of employment and education.

A person has a disability for the purposes of the DDA if s/he has a physical or mental impairment that has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on her/his ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.

The centre will meet the requirements of the DDA by ensuring that the exams centre is accessible and improving candidate experience. This is the responsibility of the Examinations Officer, ALNCo and Senior Leadership Team.

Access arrangements

The ALNCo will inform subject teachers of candidates with special educational needs who are embarking on a course leading to an exam. The ALNCo can then inform individual staff of any special arrangements that individual candidates can be granted during the course and in the exam.

A candidate's access arrangements requirement is determined by the ALNCo, Doctor and Educational psychologist/Specialist teacher.

Malpractice

Prior to learners sitting any external examination (Yrs.10 & 12) a paper copy of JCQ information for candidates is given to all learners.

A copy of the JCQ Information for Candidates is also available on our school website in the examination area.

Prior to sitting any external examination or internal assessment, examination rules and protocols are made clear to learners in an assembly / classroom.

Prior to learners starting any form of internal assessment, the rules and protocols are made clear.

All venues which are used to house external examinations have the required signage as per JCQ guidance.

All invigilation staff are trained and are aware of JCQ rules and guidance.

The Head of Centre is responsible for investigating suspected malpractice. In most cases, this is delegated to the Examinations Officer and DHT. Where there is suspected malpractice, the relevant examination board will be informed. An investigation will be undertaken where all involved will be interviewed. All stakeholders will be kept informed of the progress and outcome of the investigation.

Exam days

The Examinations Officer will book all exam rooms after liaison with other users and make the question papers, other exam stationery and materials available for the invigilation staff.

The Senior Invigilator will start all exams in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Head of Department/Subject may be present at the start of the exam to assist with identification of candidates but must not advise on which questions or sections are to be attempted and should not enter the examination venue.

In practical exams subject teachers may be on hand in case of any technical difficulties.

Exam papers must not be read by subject teachers or removed from the exam room before the end of a session. Papers will be distributed to Heads of Department at the end of the exam session.

ALNCo

- Ensure access arrangements have been applied for.
- Work with teaching staff to ensure requirements for support staff are met.

Appeals against assessments

Appeals against internal assessments must be made before the commencement of the main written examination papers.

The full process for managing appeals against internal, external assessments, access arrangements and post results survey is detailed in a separate appeals policy, available from the Examinations Office.

Results

Results, enquiries about results (EARs) and access to scripts (ATS)

Candidates will receive individual result slips on results days, either in person at the centre or by post to their home addresses (candidates to provide self-addressed envelope). Results will not be emailed to any candidate.

Arrangements for the centre to be open on results days are made by the Head of Centre.

The provision of staff on results days is the responsibility of the Head of Centre.

EARs

EARs may be requested by centre staff or candidates if there are reasonable grounds for believing there has been an error in marking. The candidates consent is required before any EAR is requested.

If a result is queried, the Examinations Officer, teaching staff and Head of Centre will investigate the feasibility of asking for a re-mark at the centre's expense.

When the centre does not support a candidate's or parent's request for an EAR, a candidate may apply to have an enquiry carried out. If a candidate requires this against the advice of subject staff, they will be charged.

ATS

After the release of results, candidates may ask subject staff to request the return of papers within three days' scrutiny of the results.

Centre staff may also request scripts for investigation or for teaching purposes. For the latter, the consent of candidates must be obtained.

GCSE re-marks cannot be applied for once a script has been returned.

Certificates

Certificates

Certificates are Collected and signed for.

Certificates can be collected on behalf of a candidate by third parties, provided they have been authorised to do so.

Certificates are withheld from candidates who owe fees.

The centre retains certificates for at least one year.

A transcript of results may be issued if a candidate agrees to pay the costs incurred.

Contingency plan

Exam Contingency

The priority when implementing contingencies will be to maintain three principles:

- delivering assessments to published timetables
- delivering results to published timetables
- complying with regulatory requirements in relation to assessment, marking and standards.

a. Exams officer absent at a critical stage of the examination cycle

In the event of the examinations officer being absent at a critical stage of the examination cycle, in order to minimise risk to examination administration and avoid any adverse impact on students, centre will

- Refer to the Exam Entries / Exam Day Contingency Plan (as maintained by EO)
- Consult with ABs when necessary
- Contact Centre Support Officer

b. Additional Learning Needs Coordinator (ALNCO) absent for prolonged period of time

In the event of the ALNCo being absent for a prolonged period of time, candidates requiring access arrangements may not be assessed and their applications not processed. To ensure candidates are in receipt of all access arrangements, centre will

- Ensure the EO and ALNCo have worked together over the year
- Assistant ALNCo (Emma Tate) to cover tasks
- Recruit a specialist assessor
- EO to assist in applications online.

c. Disruption of teaching time – centre is closed for an extended period

Where there is disruption to teaching time and students miss teaching and learning, the centre will ensure learners are prepared, as usual, for examinations.

- In the case of modular courses, centre may advise learners to sit examinations in the next available series
- Centre will have plans in place to facilitate alternative methods of learning. This will be facilitated via TEAMS and / or other online platforms

d. Learners unable to take examinations because of a crisis -centres remain open

- In the event of learners being unable to attend the centre to take examinations as normal, the centre will liaise with learners to identify whether the examination can be sat at an alternative venue in agreement with the relevant awarding organisations. JCQ guidance on alternative site arrangements can be accessed through the JCQ website.
- centre will offer candidates an opportunity to sit any examinations missed at the next available series
- centre will apply to awarding organisations for special consideration for candidates where they have met the minimum requirements. JCQ guidance on special consideration can be accessed through the JCQ website.

e. Centre unable to open as normal during the examination period

If the centre is unable to open as normal for examinations, they will inform each awarding body with which examinations are due to be taken as soon as is possible. As part of general planning for emergencies, the centre will cover the impact on examinations. The head of centre will decide whether it is safe for the centre to open. The head will take advice or follow instructions from relevant local or national agencies in deciding whether the centre is able to open.

- centre will open for examinations and examination candidates only, if possible
- centres will use alternative venues in agreement with relevant awarding organisations (e.g. share facilities with other centres, primary cluster or use other public building, if possible)
- centres will offer candidates an opportunity to sit any examinations missed at the next available series
- centres will apply to awarding organisations for special consideration for candidates where they have met the minimum requirements.

f. Disruption to the transportation of completed examination scripts

- If there is a delay in normal collection arrangements for completed examination scripts the centre will seek advice from awarding organisations and collection agency regarding collection. Centre will seek approval from awarding bodies before making their own arrangements for transportation.
- centre will ensure secure storage of completed examination scripts until collection.

g. Centre unable to distribute results as normal

If the centre is unable to access or manage the distribution of results to candidates, or to facilitate post results services, centre will contact awarding organisations about alternative options. i.e.:

- centre will make arrangements to access its results at an alternative site
- centre has arrangements in place to deal with the potential threat of a cyber-attack.
- centre will make arrangements to coordinate access to post results services from an alternative site

- centre will share facilities with other centres if this is possible.

Whistleblowing

Prestatyn High School encourages a free and open culture that allows workers to feel able to share their concerns internally in confidence. In particular, it recognises that effective and honest communication is essential if concerns about breaches or failures are to be effectively dealt with.

The Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 gives protection to whistle-blowers, but only if disclosures fall under a specific area of concern, and are made in good faith using internal disclosure procedures, which are outlined below. In line with good practice, the school has a whistleblowing policy for the following reasons.

- It is better for an employer to enable workers to voice concerns within the organisation, rather than forcing a whistle-blower to go public and so expose the employer to damaging media coverage.
- A whistle-blower may lose the protection of the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 if he / she ignores any internal policy.
- An internal policy can help an employer to detect problems before they seriously damage its business.
- As a school we have fully adopted DCC's Whistleblowing Policy

Conflict of interest

The JCQ General Regulations for Approved Centres require that centres record conflicts of interest and take steps to mitigate their effects. In addition, in certain circumstances, centres are required to notify awarding bodies of the conflict of interest.

Heads of Centres and EO are responsible for managing any potential conflicts of interest in relation to examinations, NEAs, Speaking and Listening assessments.

The EO and Head of Centre must ensure that records of potential conflict of interest, and the steps taken to mitigate it, are retained.

In the following instances, the exam board must be notified of the conflict of interest:

- The potential conflict of interest involves the Head of Centre
- A member of centre staff has been entered as a candidate and is required to complete an internal assessment marked by a member of staff.
- A member of centre staff is involved in assessing work which will contribute towards an overall grade e.g. NEA, for a member of their family (which includes step-family, foster family and similar close relationships) or close friends and their immediate family (e.g. son/daughter)

The notification must include details of the candidates involved and the steps taken to mitigate the conflict. (See appendix 1)
